About the Harrison Art League

Harrison Art League (HAL) is one of the founding members of the Ozarks Arts Council in Harrison, AR. It is an organization that is not only open to painters, but to photographers, potters, sculptors, woodcarvers and anyone who just has a love for the arts. HAL gives everyone involved a unique opportunity to exhibit, compete or just view fantastic artwork in Harrison and meet friends from surrounding areas. With its membership in the Ozark Arts Council, HAL is entitled to use of any of the OAC's facilities and equipment, along with volunteers. HAL Provides the following programs: Art Shows, Workshops, Demonstrations, Art Scholarships, Paintings Exhibited in Local Businesses, and at least one judged show held annually, open to all artists. The show has categories from oils, acrylics, water media, mixed media, pastels, drawings, photographs, woodcarving and sculpture. So please come get involved!
